

BENEFICIARY PROFILE

Nancymerina Shaidi

Nancymerina Shaidi is a Tanzanian MSc student at Henley Business School (University of Reading). She received support from the IRE|BS Foundation for African Real Estate Research that helped her successfully completing her degree program.

The grant comprised sponsorship for costs incurred in the context of her Master's degree, which helped her meet her accommodation expenses for six (6) months of her one-year program. This support has enabled to create a conducive environment for her to study and perform well in her studies.

Having accommodation taken care of has played a crucial role to support Nancymerina's research and professional development. She says: "I appreciate the foundation for supporting my Master's degree. (I am) looking forward to pursuing a PhD."
