

My name is Frederick Polukuu from Ghana. I am currently a student on the MSc Real Estate Finance Programme at the Henley Business School, University of Reading.

I received a grant from IREBS Foundation for African Real Estate Research for my Real Estate Finance studies (MSc) at Henley Business School, University of Reading. This generous grant has afforded me a home away from my home including living expenses in the height of the Covid pandemic for 6 solid months.

By this gesture, IREBS foundation for African Real Estate Research shed a light on me at a crucial point in my journey to be coming a scholar in real estate for the immediate benefit of the University for Development Studies, Ghana.

IREBS has cushioned me from the negative impact of the lockdowns in the UK and has enabled me to focus on my studies. I am grateful to IREBS for supporting my dream.
